

This only covers an individuals interest in the whole amateur radio community , as I know it the ARRL has a way better comprehensive plan covering all bands and classes with input from the whole community. I feel this is another waste of resources.